RETIRED?

The USU is still your union

Stay in the picture ... join the USU Retired Members Club

Your contribution to the United Services Union has been vital to the success of the Union and its fight for workers and their families. Your continued support of the Union is important to us and General Secretary Graeme Kelly invites you to continue your participation with the USU through the USU Retired Members Club.

The Retired Members Club offers you many of the services available to USU members and enables the Union to have the benefit of your experience.

The Club is open to all long-serving members, employees and officials of the USU and we encourage you to join. Please read this brochure for more details on what your membership will deliver.

Protecting the future

The aim of the Retired Members Club is to foster goodwill and friendship amongst retired unionists and to provide the opportunity for long term unionists to access the benefits of union membership and to promote the cause of labour and unionism.

Membership of the Club is open to former members of the MEU, FCU and USU members who:

- have five years or more of continuous membership with the union prior to their retirement or
- are endorsed Life members or
- are former employees or officials of the union having ten or more years of continuous service.

The Club Committee may accept written applications from those who may not meet the above criteria, but have made a significant contribution to the Union.

The USU is still your union - call the USU on (02) 9265 8211 or the USU Support Team on 1300 136 604 or visit the website at www.usu.org.au
